

CFCI DEBATES: PREVIOUS MOTIONS

20 March 2006

‘This House believes that Buildings that win awards lose money’
Lord Peter Palumbo in the Chair
Colin Harding, Franco Mastrandrea and Ian Du Quesnay, proposing
Paul Finch, Piers Gough and Keith Bradley, opposing

29 November 2004

‘This House believes that Architects are wrong to speak of ‘My Building’’
Colin Greenhalgh CBE in the Chair
Peter Studdert, Jane Kennedy and Nichola Harrison, proposing
John Outram, Oliver Smith and Paul Morrell, opposing

29 January 2004

‘This House believes that the Construction Industry needs Big Brother more than Bob the Builder’
Robin Nicholson in the Chair
Alastair Collins, Stuart Pemble and Peter Bazalgette, proposing
Max Hutchinson, Eric Parry and David Hutchison, opposing

28 January 2003

‘This House believes that House Builders are good for Cambridge’
Stephen Sillery in the Chair
Dermot Gleeson, John Oldham and Roger Humber, proposing
Lawrence Wragg, Graham Stuart and Ralph Carpenter, opposing

29 January 2002

‘This House believes that Cambridge Colleges are hell to work for’
Dr Ted Powell in the Chair
Paul Darling QC, Bob Allies and Roger Salmon, proposing
Ted Cullinan, Victor Bugg and Professor Alan Short, opposing

30 January 2001

‘This House believes that Cambridge Buildings pay too little attention to history’
Dr Nicholas Bullock in the Chair
Dr David Starkey, Derek Sugden and Duncan Robinson, proposing
David Adamson, John Winter and Johnny Winter, opposing

2000

No Debate

26 January 1999

‘This House believes that the Building Industry is populated by cowboys’
Colonel Richard Robinson in the Chair
Robin Nicholson, David Adamson and David Thurlow, proposing
Stephen Moon, Geoffrey Trickey and Chris Taylor, opposing

1998

No Debate

22 January 1997

‘This House is not confident that the Millennium will be appropriately marked’
Dr Nicholas Bullock in the Chair
Paul Finch, Christopher Lucas CBE and David Woolley QC, proposing
Rory Coonan, Simon Pott and John Taylor QC, opposing

24 January 1996

‘This House believes that Democracy diminishes design’
Dr Kate Pretty in the Chair

David Thurlow, Bernard Rimmer and Stephen Greenberg, proposing
Giles Oliver, Gwilym Roberts and Sal Brinton, opposing

26 January 1995

‘This House believes that Cambridge Town is for Cambridge people’
Lady Mary Archer in the Chair
Christopher Pratt, Donald MacKay and Robert Satchwell, proposing
Procter Naylor, Luke Mayhew and Ian Cooper, opposing

27 January 1994

‘This House believes that Green belts are stifling our cities’
Malcolm Grant in the Chair
Robin Thomson and Simon Sedgwick-Jell proposing
Fiona Reynolds and David Earl opposing

28 January 1993

‘This House believes that Architects should stick to Design’
Sir Jack Zunz in the Chair
Charles McKean, Eric Parry and David Bucknall, proposing
Edward Cullinan, John Marshall and Frank Duffy, opposing

30 January 1992

‘This House believes that Cambridge must develop or decline’
Malcolm Allsop in the Chair
Professor Alec Broers, Bill Wicksteed and Paul Judge, proposing
Robin Johnson, ANO and Simon Sedgwick-Jell, opposing

23 January 1991

‘This House believes that the Age of Patronage is dead’
Baroness Lady Blatch in the Chair
Frances Tibbalds and Charles Knevitt, proposing
Richard McCormac and Ken Powell, opposing

24 January 1990

‘This House would build traditional buildings’
Christopher Martin in the Chair
Quinlan Terry, Richard Biscoe-Taylor and Leon Krier, proposing
Colin Stansfield Smith, Peter Clegg and David Thurlow, opposing

25 January 1989

‘This House would Design and Build’
Professor Sir Jack Lewis in the Chair
Roger Mortimer, Roger Warren-Evans, Andrew Johnson and David Hutchison, proposing
Max Hutchinson, Alan Short, Peter Hall and Sir Andrew Derbyshire, opposing

20 January 1988

‘Carbuncles are good for Cambridge’