

THE DAVID URWIN AWARDS

The David Urwin Awards were established in 1988 in honour and memory of David Urwin the former City Planning Officer of Cambridge.

Since 1998 the awards have been co-sponsored by the City Council, the Cambridge Evening news and CFCI

Full details can be found on the Cambridge City Council website at <http://www.cambridge.gov.uk/ccm/content/policy-and-projects/david-urwin-awards.en>

The following is a list of winners, most recent first:

2005

- Most Efficient and Sustainable Building:
Faculty of Education (Building Design Partnership) and Faculty of English (Allies and Morrison)
- Certification of Commendation:
House in Perowne Street (Freeland Rees Roberts)

2004

- Best work in the Public Realm:
Street-scape improvements, King's Parade and Senate House Hill (Cambridge City Council)
- Certificates of Commendation:
Public Conveniences, Gonville Place (Freeland Rees Roberts) and Millennium Garden corner Norfolk Street and St Matthew's Street (Petersfield Area Community Trust, Cambridge City Council)

2003

- Best Conservation, alteration or extension of an existing building:
Library, Newnham College (John Miller and Partners)
- Certificate of Commendation:
Old Library, Trinity Hall (Freeland Rees Roberts)
- Best craftsmanship in conservation of an existing building:
Entrance Hall, Founders Building, The Fitzwilliam Museum (Tobit Curteis)

2002

- Best major new building 1998 - 2002:
Centre for Mathematical Sciences, Clarkson Road (Edward Cullinan Architects)
- Best minor new building 1998 - 2002:
Postgraduate Accommodation - now known as Hawthorne House, Bondi House and Broers House - Storey's Way, Churchill College (Cottrell and Vermeulen)

2001

- Building of the Century:
Parkside Pools (S and P Architects)1989
- Best new building:
New Court, Fitzwilliam College (MacCormac, Jamieson, Pritchard and Wright)
- Best restoration:
Wall paintings at All Saint's Church, Jesus Lane (Hirst Conservation)
- Best extension:
9 Hertford Street (Nicholas Hellawell)

2000

- Best conservation, extension or alteration of an existing building:
Jerwood Library, Trinity Hall (Freeland Rees Roberts)
- Special Award for Craftsmanship:
Garden Building, Emmanuel College (Coulson Joinery)

1999

No award

1998

- Building of the Decade:
Judge Institute of Management Studies (John Outram)

1997

- Best College or University building:
Quincentenary Library, Jesus College (Evans and Shalev)
- Best new Residential Building:
Flower Street (Paul Harney Associates)
- Best street-scape enhancement or landscape scheme:
Madingley Road Park and Ride (Landscape Design Group, and Cambridge City Architects Department)
- Special Conservation Award:
Bateman Auditorium, Gonville and Caius College (Donald Insall Associates)
- Special Craftsmanship Award:
Eaden Lilley Shop-front (Barber, Casanovas, Ruffles)

1996

No award

1995

- Best new building:
University Athletics Centre (S and P Architects)
- Greatest Improvement to the street scene:
Cleaning of the Zion Baptist Church (Hirst Conservation)
- Best restoration, extension or alteration of an existing building:
The Library, St John's College (Edward Cullinan Architects)

1994

No award

1993

- Best new building:
Chapel, Fitzwilliam College (MacCormac, Jamieson, Pritchard and Wright)
- Best landscaping, paving or other works in the street scene:
Sussex Street pedestrianisation (Landscape Design Group, Cambridge City Council)
- Best restoration, extension or alteration of an existing building:
The Eagle public house, Bene't Street (Greene King and Ison Wisbey Associates)

1992

No award

1991

- Best new building:
Blue Boar Court, Trinity College (MacCormac, Jamieson, Pritchard and Wright)
- Best landscaping, paving or other works in the street scene:
Boundary wall repairs, Jesus College (Donald Insall Associates)
- Best restoration, extension or alteration of an existing building:
Ditchburn Place (Cambridge City Architects Department)